Program:

Day 1, August 14 (Saturday):

Departure from Gothenburg Central station at 0845 - Arrival at Oslo Central station at 1245

Departure from Oslo 1500 - Arrival in Bergen 2230

You will be met by OMEP-Norway at the railway station and guided to see exhibitions at the Nobel Peace Center. You might also get a glimpse of the new Opera house.

From Oslo to Bergen you will pass a huge mountain plateau called Hardangervidda. The travel from Oslo to Bergen by train is famous for the beautiful sceneries.

You will be met by OMEP-hosts at the railway station in Bergen

Day 2, August 15 (Sunday):

Sightseeing in the City of Bergen

OMEP Norway will guide you at a city walk to “Bryggen” situated at the harbor front. The old wooden buildings dating back almost 900 years are placed on UNESCO’s World Heritage List and are situated next to the Hanseatic museum. We might take the Fløibanen Funicular ride up to the top of Fløyen mountain (320 metres above sea level). You will also be able to take a trip to the composer Edwards Griegs home Trollhaugen or the composer Ole Bulls home at the Island Lysøen (by boat) at an extra cost. OMEP-Norway will facilitate these excursions.

You will be invited to an informal OMEP- dinner in the evening with possibilities for academic and professional discussions.

Day 3, August 16 (Monday):

Visit to kindergarten

Meetings with Director Tom Are Trippestad and Academic staff of Centre of Educational Research at Bergen University College on the topic: Early Childhood Education and Politics in Norway.

OMEP- Lunch and further professional and academic exchange.

Meetings with Department of Early Childhood Education in Bergen-municipality Erik Duncan on the topic: “Project management and visions for kindergartens in Bergen”.
